

24:83._12_

GEORGE BARR McCUTCHEON COLLECTION

INTRODUCTION

For biographical information about George Barr McCutcheon (1866-1928) see Vertical Files: Biography (George Barr McCutcheon) and the biography, "Beyond Graustark: George Barr McCutcheon, Playwright Rediscovered" by Arnold Lazarus, pub. 1981.

George Barr McCutcheon was a Tippecanoe County native newspaperman, author, and playwright. He attended Redeye School, Ford School, and Purdue University. With his brothers, John T. and Ben, George was raised on a farm south of Lafayette.

See also TCHA Library collection of novels by George Barr McCutcheon.

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION OF ARCHIVAL COLLECTION

One 2-1/2" document box

CONTAINER LIST

GEORGE BARR McCUTCHEON (1866-1928): LITERARY WORKS

BOX 1

FOLDER 1

Book of poems: "Several Short Ones, found by Geo. B. McCutcheon, during Flights of Imagination..." printed by "Morning Journal Print," n.d. 14 pp. Acc. #6458.

(For other published works by GBM, see TCHA Library collection.)

BOUND MANUSCRIPT

"The Sherrods" by George Barr McCutcheon. 497 pp. On cover: The Sherrods: Original manuscript in its condition prior to subsequent revision, February 13, 1900. Holograph; written in pencil, with corrections. Acc. #6089.

PEOPLE

McCutcheon, George Barr

CLASSIFICATION

Literature

SUBJECTS

Literature
Writing

SEARCH TERMS